

The 'Links' section primarily contains links to other organisations around the world whose work is related to the field of media and diversity, and is organised according to type of organisation, and then by geographical region (see menu on left).

There are also links to scholarships and funding sources, and awards related to media and diversity.

