

Deadline: November 1, 2009

Region/Country: Western Europe

This seminar brings together CEJI's brand new training manuals addressing Antisemitism and Islamophobia, developed by Religious Diversity education team together with the Jewish Muslim Cooperation Platform, and CEJI's long term youth partner EPTO (European Peer Trainers Organisation) in a brand new pilot seminar.

This seminar will address Antisemitism and Islamophobia through media literacy. Seminar participants will learn to confront Antisemitism and Islamophobia in the media, develop critical thinking skills to analyse the media and develop skills and techniques to develop their own media tools. At the end of the seminar it is planned to produce a short broadcast on an internet radio station to showcase the results of this seminar.
