

Deadline: 20 January 2017

Region: European Union and Switzerland

CIVIS Media Prize 2017 competition is on. The best radio, film and TV programmes as well as websites and web videos on the theme of integration and cultural diversity have to be sent by 20 January 2017.

CIVIS again recognizes programme contributions on the radio, film, television and the Internet, which are particularly suitable for the promotion of the peaceful coexistence of people of different geographic or cultural backgrounds. Reports, documentaries, coverage, features, films or cartoons can be submitted to the European Competition. All formats and genres are permitted.

There will be the The CIVIS Special Prize Football 2017 for the best sport programmes in the German language on the issue of football and integration.

All radio and television broadcasting companies, production companies, as well as website providers in the European Union and Switzerland may participate in the competition.

More information on conditions of participation can be found here.