

Deadline: 21 January 2019

Region: Europe

CIVIS again recognizes programme contributions on the radio, film, television and the Internet, which are particularly suitable for the promotion of the peaceful coexistence of people of different geographic or cultural backgrounds. This year there is an additional prize for a project titled "Football and Integration" which will be awarded in cooperation with the DFB (German Football Association).

All radio and television broadcasting companies, production companies, streaming services and website providers in the European Union and Switzerland are eligible to compete. Journalism schools are also eligible to submit students' work, so long as it was broadcast or published between the dates of 24 January 2018 and 24 January 2019.
