

Deadline: October 30

Region/Country: Russia

A competition in Russia seeks outstanding online resources developed for a young audience. Submissions should be interesting, useful and positive. Deadline: October 30.

Eligible Web sites will demonstrate importance for community, and be educational and innovative. They must be protected from viruses and free of aggressive advertising.

The first prize winner will receive RUB 400,000 (about US$13,000). Winners will be announced on November 25. The competition is supported by the Ministry of Communications of the Russian Federation, the Russian Committee of the Year of the Safe Internet, RU-Center and others.

For more information (in Russian), go to <http://saferinternet.ru/index.php?page=5&db=124>