

Deadline: August 13, 2010

Region: Latin America

Journalists in the Dominican Republic who work in print, digital, and broadcast media are invited to submit works on situations that affect children and adolescents in the country to a national competition. Deadline: August 13.

The competition, organized by Plan República Dominicana, UNICEF and Visión Mundial, seeks to promote the coverage of children and to create awareness of childhood issues in the media and society.

Works must have been published between August 16, 2009 and August 10, 2010.

For more information, click here: http://www.unicef.org/republicadominicana/media_18130.htm (in Spanish).

For Courtesy of the 'International Journalist Network'