

www.mediaculture-online.de

Keywords: International, Europe, German, Deutch, Media diversity, resources, education, media, journalism.

Media Culture-Online is an Internet portal that provides information about the topics media education, media practice and media culture for the school and extracurricular field available. The offer gives teachers, teachers, parents, students and educational multipliers instructions and literature for its own media production, media analysis and media at hand.