

nomadproductions.co.uk

Keywords: International, English, Production, Communications, conflict resolution, development, radio

Nomad is a London based production company with a global outlook. We specialise in creating television and radio (video/audio) programmes for education, sustainable development and peace-building.

Nomad draws on a team of programme makers with a wealth of international production and reporting experience. We offer production services, production training and media consultancy to clients in the UK and internationally.