The Ten Minutes Kids News works with children and young people to produce their news. International, the kids news has won great respect.

The team has already won several prizes in a row on the UNICEF Caribbean Media Awards for their unique, fun and understandable approach to complex and serious issues that touch on the rights of children. On the website of the Ten Minutes Jeugdjournaal, children can watch episodes and give their opinions. The website creates a platform for Dutch and Surinamese children by sharing thoughts and ideas online.
