

www.reseau-ipam.org

Keywords: International, Europe, France, French, English, Spanish, Human rights, social movement, network

IPAM (Initiatives for another world) is an international network composed of solidarity associations reunited to converge their efforts and subscribe to the dynamics of international social movements for a more interdependent world. Together they have elaborated a charter reminding their ethics and values. IPAM engages alongside people and organizations battling for access to fundamental human rights.