

www.aidh.org

Keywords: International, Europe, France, French, human rights, education, information, resources, training, discrimination, News

Information, training and education in the fields of the human rights, a French-speaking website devoted to the promotion of human rights and fundamental freedoms.

This website is a general-interest informational and educational tool in French. It provides a vast amount of information on human rights (the history of these rights and the present situation). It covers current events, gathers important documents, and gives all the information needed to find out about, understand as well as analyze events and situations throughout the world with regard to human rights.