

www.diversitycentre.co.uk

Keywords: Europe, UK, English, diversity training, consultants, discrimination, business, consultancy

The Diversity Centre is a consultancy that provides ethical training for private or public practises. “We believe success is achievable through clarity of vision followed by informed action.

Responsiveness to equality and diversity issues is central to successful management. We encourage customers to consider these issues as a natural part of their planning process and management strategies, through the implementation of a robust equal opportunities policy, a transparent recruitment process, a commitment to staff development and a willingness to respond to customer feedback.