

www.exiledjournalists.net

Keywords: UK, English, journalism, diversity in general, All Regions, freedom of expression & diversity, human rights, Media development, Media ethics & diversity, Peace journalism.

The Exiled Journalists' Network (EJN) is a groundbreaking organisation set up to help journalists who have fled to the UK to escape persecution because of their media work. The group the first of its kind anywhere in the world- organised by and for exiled journalists, it aims to promote press freedom around the world and assist both asylum seeking and refugee journalists